

With precision and gentleness, Bill Query of Crawfordsville Monument Company, carefully reletters a memorial erected for Rev. Robert Roberts by the Methodist Preachers in Indiana, situated on the DePauw University campus between John Harrison and Asbury Halls. After the stencil is completed, the column will be sandblasted to give the lettering better contrast against the stone. Query's job will take approximately one week and is the only monument in the area that he will be working on.

Nation Wide Campaign Begins Sunday

Cystic Fibrosis is the second leading killer of children in the United States.

And millions of parents across the nation will watch helplessly as their children who have the genetic disease struggle for breath from day to day. It's always a losing struggle; cystic fibrosis is terminal.

This is the reason behind a nation wide campaign from September 8-15, "Breath of Life" Week. Money will be raised for sorely-needed research funds to combat the disease.

About 50 Putnam County volunteers will be circulating the county until the fifteenth; you'll be able to recognize them as they will be carrying identification.

Mrs. Betty Litchford, Putnam County Cystic Fibrosis chairperson said that she has not set a goal for the first-year drive. She added that all money collected will be directly forwarded to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis to be used for research into the disease.

In addition to the "door-to-door" collections canisters have been placed throughout the county for donations.

Anyone wishing to donate directly to the Putnam County chairperson should mail their contributions to: Mrs. Betty Litchford 808 Hillcrest Drive Greencastle. If you live in the northern part of the county-Mrs Jack Clifford Rt. 1, Bainbridge is Bainbridge chairperson. Mrs. Clifford can be reached at 522-6784.

Pilot Program For Newspaper Collection

The Putnam County Learning Center will initiate a pilot program for collection of newspapers the second and fourth weeks of the month, the staff said.

The program will begin in October with newspaper pickup set for Monday Sept. 23. The Learning Center is asking that the newspapers be neatly bundled if possible and placed along side of trash for regular pick-up. On rainy days or heavy snow days, the center asks that the papers be held for the following scheduled pick-up week, they said.

The staff noted that since the program is only one, its success will depend on the cooperation of the public.

Dear Abby

How to raise a juvenile delinquent

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I've been carrying one of your columns around for six or seven years, and it's practically falling apart, but it still makes a lot of sense. Will you please run it again? A whole new generation of teen-agers is coming up and I'm sure it will help other fathers as much as it has helped me.

TOUGH BUT LOVING

DEAR T BUT L: With pleasure. And here it is: TEN RULES FOR RAISING A JUVENILE DELINQUENT

1. Begin at infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words laugh at him. This will make him think he is cute.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is twenty-one, then let him decide for himself.
4. Pick up everything he leaves lying around: books, shoes, clothes. Do everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing all responsibility on others.
5. Quarrel with your spouse frequently in his presence. In this way he will not be shocked when the home is broken.
6. Give a child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?
7. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink, and comfort. Denial may lead to frustrations.
8. Take his part against neighbors, teachers, and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
9. When he gets into trouble, apologize for yourself by saying: "I never could do anything with him."
10. Prepare for plenty of headaches. You are sure to have them.

DEAR ABBY: I am 74, retired, in fairly good health and I keep active and useful. I lost my wife 14 months ago, after 52 years of a nearly perfect marriage. Naturally, I'm lonesome.

I don't impose on my children-for company. They're married and have their own families and friends, so I make myself scarce. She lost her mate four years ago and we seem to hit it off real well. I asked my children what they thought about my marrying her, and they all voted it down saying: "What for, Pa? You'd be foolish to marry again at your age. If you're lonesome, ask her to live with you. You don't have to MARRY her." (How do you like that from children who were raised to be respectable?)

That not my style, Abby. I wouldn't insult the little lady by suggesting such a thing. Besides, I'd be ashamed before my grandchildren.

Do you think I'd be foolish to marry again at my age? And what are my children thinking of?

OLD TIMER

DEAR OLD TIMER: I think you'd be foolish NOT to marry again if that's what you want. And as for what your children are thinking of—I don't know, but I'll wager it has something to do with money. Hang in there, Tiger.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ARGUING ENDLESSLY": You can end the endless argument about religion with a brilliant quote by Bradford Leavitt: "I your religion makes you kinder than I, your religion is better than mine."

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please. Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Cal. 90212, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

In Memoriam

In memory of Clay Lane who left us 2 years ago Sept. 8. My precious husband.

Its just a cluster of memories sprayed with a million years. Wish God could have spared you.

To some you may be forgotten
To some a part of the past,
To us you loved you and lost your memory will always last.

God knew you had to leave us
but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day he took you home.

In Memoriam

I loving memory of our Mother and Grandmother, Margaret White who passed away Sept. 7, 1969.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For a part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

Not being able to say goodbye,
But the one
Will always bring regrets.
But the ones who loved you dearly,
Are the ones who won't forget.

Whenever partner has a choice of cards to play, a good defender asks himself why partner played the card he did play, rather than the one he didn't play.

Cougars Bend, But Snap Back To Break Avon In OT

North Putnam's fighting Cougars scrapped with rugged Avon to a scoreless draw for 48 defense-filled minutes in the Orioles' nest last night, held the hosts for four plays from the Cougar ten yard line in overtime, and then scored on their fourth down to spring away with a 6-0 opening West Central Conference game victory.

Cougar quarterback Steve Bullerick hit split end Rex Call on a third down look-in (the same play the Cougars had used so successfully against Greencastle last week in the overtime) that had the North Putnam stands doing a victory dance, but the officials ruled that Call's knee had touched down on the one yard line.

Not to be foiled, the middle of the North Putnam offensive line drove straight ahead with wedge blocking that created enough room for Rod Zimmerman to bulldoze across the goal line with the winning score.

The Cougars had won the toss for the overtime, and had selected to take the defense first so that they could see what task they would be faced with when they got the ball.

Giving up six yards on the first carry by Avon's fine running back Gilmore, the Cougar forces then welded together, keyed by a crucial tackle by inside linebacker Jeff Stultz to drive Avon back to the six yard line during the course of the ensuing three running plays.

"We didn't look like the same ball team tonight," related a relieved head coach Don DeBoer after the Cougar's second cliff-hanger in as many weeks. "We were flat and had a lot of penalties. That's what worried me, being down after that Greencastle game."

"There wasn't any way to get them back up that high last night. What did it was desire and conditioning. I was real pleased with the effort. Now we can work on getting some polish, getting more diversified."

The Cougars did show some diversity from their first week's straight ahead attack as they opened up a long passing game in the end of the first half that took them from their own 30 down to the Oriole 8 when time ran out on them.

Mike Bullerick was directing the attack at the time, firing three long passes during the drive, one of them a 26 yarder to halfback Jerry Miller.

Avon drove inside the Cougar ten yard line "a couple of times" as DeBoer remembered afterward, but North Putnam "would bend, but we wouldn't break."

Especially helping to keep the Cougars out of trouble in the first half, when their offense could not get moving until late in the session, was the punting of Steve McGaughey, who kicked five times in the game for an average of approximately 45 yards, and the downfield coverage of the kicking team.

Also drawing praise from their coach for their defensive play were outside linebacker Gerald Noll, linebacker Larry Tippin, who came up with a big interception, and linebacker David Keil, who was forced from the game with a knee injury.

The linebackers were a key spot in the Cougar defense, as defensive coach Ron Price organized his squad into a 4-5-2 alignment when the Orioles chose to stay on the ground.

Greencastle's Tiger Cub defense really put it to the North Central Thunderbirds last night on the Cubs' home field, sending the visitors 59 yards backwards for their net offensive showing in the Cubs' 20-0 whitewash victory.

Held to a plus four yards in the first half thanks to a Cub penalty, the Thunderbirds didn't pick up a first down until the second half, where they were awarded two in the third quarter on Cub penalties.

They didn't pick up any of their own accord until a scant minute and a half remained in the game, with the Cubs on top 13-0. North Central then put together a drive that carried them from their own 35 to the Cub 17 when converted Cub noseman Phil Fisher decided that the pair of first downs the Thunderbirds had collected were entirely enough.

When North Central's main running threat, Dave Pirtle rolled out right with a pitchout looking for a receiver, Fisher and three other Cubs gave hot pursuit. Pirtle barely managed to release the ball before being decked, but it went straight up into the air, where Fisher picked it off on his own 20, stepped over the sedentary Pirtle, and began hurtling his 240 pounds full speed ahead down the left sidelines.

There wasn't a Thunderbird close until the Cub 10, whom defensive back Larry Williams disposed of with a roll block to pave the rest of the way for Fisher's 80 yard journey that sent the Greencastle fans into hysterics and the Thunderbird net offensive yardage deeply into the red.

Fisher, who was moved by head coach Gary Cassells from tackle to nose man on the defense, teamed with tackles

Tony Fenwick and Scott Smith to completely stop up the middle that had been impaired by North Putnam last week. In addition, defensive end Scott Burk spent almost as much time in the Thunderbird backfield as their own backs, while linebacker Terry Taylor drew accolades from defensive coach John Riggs for his play.

"I was pleased with the changes we made," said a happy Cassells with the first win of the season under his belt. "The boys that we moved played consistently."

The Cub offense, though not overpowering, was consistent enough in the first half to put Greencastle two touchdowns ahead, the first score coming on a dive from the two yard line by a limping Stacy Spencer with 1:44 remaining in the opening quarter.

Spencer, who was inserted into the Cub lineup on their second possession, gained two first downs on the drive that carried the Cubs from their own 40, one of them a 32 yarder that set up the TD. Following the drive, Spencer sat out the rest of the game.

The second Cub TD came with 32 seconds left in the half when quarterback Kent Frazier found end Grant Stuart open over the middle on the Cub 43, and Stuart found his path to the goal line via the left sidelines just as open.

A bit tired from the run on the 64 yard pass play, Stuart missed the conversion kick, the only one of the three upon which he failed.

But they were not necessary, as the Cub defense took over from there to enable Cassells to smile in the locker room afterwards. "It's good to win one again."

TIGER CUB quarterback Kent Frazier gets hit from behind by North Central's Mark Drake which led to a fumble recovered by Thunderbird Tom Trump during second quarter action last night at Greencastle.

South Putnam Falls To Cascade Third Quarter

Cascade's three-touchdown third period proved too much for South Putnam to overcome, as the Cadets went on to take a 26-19 victory at Cascade Friday night.

The Cadets scored first on a tailback scamper; but an unsuccessful conversion attempt and fullback Tim Thomas' 6-yard scoring gallop coupled with a Mark Holderfield boot, made it 7-6 at halftime.

Cascades three-TD blitz in the third period came on a 20-yard halfback carry, a 10-yard scout by the fullback, and a quarterback keeper from a few yards out. Only the last conversion attempt was successful by the Cadets—a two-pointer.

The Eagles came back with a 30-yard pass from Brad Booe to halfback Holderfield. The final score in the fourth quarter came on a 15-yard pass from Booe to Holderfield.

South Putnam had a chance to take the victory in the final stanza, but lost the ball on an interception at the Eagle 40-yard line.

The Eagle offensive charge was stymied several times, as South Putnam was assessed with a total of 70 yards in penalties.

Monrovia Grinds Out 20-0 Clover Clipping

Monrovia's steady ground game and staunch defense enabled the Bulldogs to take a 20-0 win over Cloverdale Friday night, at Monrovia.

The Bulldogs, who dropped a close one last week to tough Owen Valley, scored first in the opening quarter with 1:30 left in the period on a 6-yard sprint by halfback Sisk. The conversion attempt was blocked.

With 4:30 left in the half, Monrovia quarterback Hadley scored on a keeper play, and passed to Pryor for the 2-point conversion to make it Monrovia 14-Cloverdale-0.

The two teams failed to make a touchdown penetration in the third period, Monrovia's final score came with 2:00 left in the game as Pryor raced 25 yards for the TD. The conversion attempt failed.

The loss evened the Clover record at 1-1; and was the first conference encounter for Cloverdale, whose next WCC opponent will be the South Putnam Eagles, at Cloverdale September 20. The Clovers will travel to Dugger next week to meet the team which dropped its first game of the season to South Putnam 20-8 a week ago.

Cub Netters Split Pair

Greencastle's Tiger Cub tennis team split a pair of matches on the McAnally Center courts this week, falling slimly to a rugged Terre Haute North squad Wednesday, 5-4, and then rebounding Thursday to drop West Vigo, 6-3.

The Cubs' No. 1 and No. 2 men, Blair MacPhail and Scott Kissinger, were the only singles performers to claim victories in both matches MacPhail shuttingout his Patriot opponent Wednesday and then dropping his Viking foe Thursday, 6-1, 6-2, while Kissinger rallied in three tough sets to win Wednesday, 6-7, 6-3, 7-6, and then breezed to an easy 6-0, 6-1 victory Thursday.

"That was a real exhibition of determination," lauded Cub coach Gerald York of Kissinger's three set win. "It was a gutsy performance. And MacPhail played outstanding tennis."

David Hazel and Mike Pur-

sell, singles victims against Terre Haute North came back Thursday to win respective 6-0, 2-6, 6-3 and 7-5, 6-0 matches in the No. 3 and No. 5 positions.

David Silander and Ken Myers the Cubs' No. 4 and No. 6 singles men, tasted defeat both playing days but the freshman Silander teamed with sophomore Pursell to win the No. 3 doubles matches both days 7-5, 7-5 and 6-1, 8-7.

MacPhail and Kissinger also teamed successfully both days to claim the No. 1 doubles matches, 6-0, 6-2 and 6-1, 6-0, prompting York to regard them as "a real effective doubles team."

The No. 2 doubles team for the Cubs, composed Wednesday of Hazel and Myers and Thursday of Hazel and Todd Wagoner fell both days.

"I'm extremely pleased with the kids," commented York as the Cubs' record on the young season went to 2-1. "We're real inexperienced in five positions and it's been a real pleasant surprise that the kids have come through so far.

"I'm especially pleased with the doubles team of Pursell and Silander," the Cub coach went on. "They're 3-0 now and a real big plus."

Looking ahead York forecasted that "our toughest competition is coming up Monday when we play Mooresville there. They're a little better than Terre Haute North and last year with an experienced team we lost to them, 7-2. We hope to show well."

The Cubs will have a full week of travel next week, as they follow their visit to Mooresville with trips to Danville and Terre Haute South Wednesday and Thursday. They will return to McAnally's courts the following Tuesday to host Southmont.

It's For The Birds!

(The author suggests that the reader mull over Jesus' words found in Luke 10:25-37 before or after reading this article.)

Chatty Cathy the Blue Jay, Charming Carmen the Wren, and Petite Patty the Hummingbird were all talking about their neighbor Blustery Betty Bluebird. They were all close friends, living in the same tree.

The significant difference is that Blustery Betty did not have a mate. But more importantly, Blustery Betty did not have a daily routine. To Chatty Cathy, Charming Carmen and Petite Patty, Betty was an embarrassment to the entire treehood.

Said Chatty Cathy to Petite Patty, "Blustery Betty needs a proper career!" "No!" chimed Charming Carmen, "she needs a mate!" "What can we do?" whistled Petite Patty.

The tree was alive with noise as the three friends twiddled about Blustery Betty. Each in turn invited Betty to their nest for delicious meals of grasshoppers, worms, or minute insect soup. Invariably Betty found an available bachelor at the party, who flew her home. In any case, few of these birds ever flew back. Blustery Betty was convinced that the gentlebird caller's notes turned sour because her forehead was too low, or her throat too short, or her body too plump. Betty took up nest weaving as a hobby only to flitter to people watching, to star gazing. A owl friend tried to coax Betty into his tree, but she fluttered away saying something about "Early to bed, early to rise...." The owl did not understand.

The mates to Chatty Cathy, Charming Carmen and Petite Patty noticed Betty's loneliness and occasionally made a flight by Betty's nest. Nothing came from their kind attention.

On one occasion, Petite Patty, the intellectual of the flock squeaked, "Let's throw a party, a truly gala party and see if we can bring some happiness to Blustery Betty". They all agreed, after all it had been three months since Betty took over Walter Woodpecker's old hole.

The party was noisy. Patty brought her favorite soup for the appetizer—"Natural Nectar with Sweet Ants". Cathy brought the main course of "Suet and Sunflower" and Carmen's dessert was "Mustard-Seed-on-the-Rod." Everything seemed fine until Chatty Cathy asked if Patty brought a friend for Betty. Then Betty seemed to become more despondent and the party soon ended with a thunderclap.

Despite the downpour of rain, Cathy, Carmen, and Patty and their mates all congratulated themselves on a thoughtful party. Each sensed that without them, Blustery Betty might become Bitter Betty and do something drastic. So they continued to invite Betty to their nests always providing the obligatory fowl.

Then one day the treepop was in turmoil. Blustery Betty was on the air waves. She was being called Beautiful Betty. Critics spoke of her trills as an "overture of splendor".

Naturally her friends called their congratulations and were surprised at her response. Betty cut each of them short! So they consoled each other with the twitter, "The poor always turn on those who care for them!"

The hen's mates noticed that Betty did appear more beautiful. Her plumage shown with a brilliance all her own and she was constantly surrounded by twitching bluebirds.

To top it off, Beautiful Betty moved out of the treehood into a small man-crafted house not far from the feeding station where Brave Bruce Bluebird lived. Chatty Cathy seemed to sum it all up with "Huh, that's the way we get for our kindness." (Submitted by Morris Finch, First Christian Church)

WORRY CLINIC

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

Caleb can soon become a young edition of Dr. Peale or other top-notch pastors if he will follow the 10-point formula below. It's easy to fill the pews by use of Applied Psychology! Always employ Christ's simple language!

CASE B-636: Caleb D., aged 24, is a seminary student. "Dr. Crane," he began, "you often advise ministerial students as well as older clergymen on how to fill the pews."

"And you say it takes a livewire in the pulpit to electrify a congregation."

"In addition, you stress the old adage about the need to fill the pulpit before you can fill the church."

"Well, if you were a young pastor, how would you reduce the number of empty pews and increase the contributions on the collection baskets each Sunday?"

PASTOR AMMUNITION

Pastors are usually very high in I.Q. and quite familiar with the Bible, but out of contact with their congregation.

To become an interesting sermonizer (orator), a clergyman needs these constant forensic aids:

(1) A Bible, wherein he can see the superb Applied Psychology that Christ employed.

For Jesus used the storytelling (narrative) technique in His sermonizing, knowing that all listeners enjoy narration better than "teachy" exposition.

That's why college youth prefer fiction magazines to textbooks!

(2) Peruse a daily newspaper, to keep up-to-date with current illustrative stories for sermons.

(3) Subscribe to QUOTE magazine (Anderson, S.C.) which includes not only top-notch quotations of world leaders on all vital topics.

But also 3 pages of wholesome humor (not lewd, pornographic stuff) that help enrich sermons as well as all other public speeches.

(4) Study READER'S DIGEST, which also contains sterling essays, as well as splendid humor, adapted to pulpit use.

Bob Orben, most prolific humor writer nowadays, says the best sources of humor for speakers consists of QUOTE magazine, plus READER'S DIGEST.

Remember, Jesus used the main tool of humorists when he employed hyperbole (extravagant exaggeration) to evoke smiles and open laughter from His audiences.

(5) Subscribe to GUIDEPOSTS — Dr. Peale's inspirational monthly.

GUIDEPOSTS offers the tear-jerker type of true episodes, often autobiographical by leading athletes, movie stars and ordinary folks.

Clergymen especially need such relevant illustrations for the climax of their sermons, to give listeners that vise-like constriction of the heart, plus the lump in the throat and tears in the eyes.

(6) Deftly weave the names of 3 parishioners into each sermon, in a relevant manner, thus covering 150 families per year.

They'll be devoted rooters thereafter and zoom their contributions, too!

(7) Put out a monthly NEWSLETTER, mimeographed, in which you tactfully name at least 50 to 100 parishioners each month.

(8) Teach yourself to remember names and faces so you can greet parishioners by name at their homes or places of business.

(9) Stimulate athletic contests between the youth of your church and those of neighboring parishes, for people relish competition.

(10) Speak loudly so old folks at the rear can hear even if you lack a pulpit microphone. For further advice, send for my booklet "Public Platform Strategy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25¢

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING SPEED LIMITS WITHIN THE TOWN OF CLOVERDALE, INDIANA, AND MAKING IT UNLAWFUL TO OPERATE ANY MOTOR VEHICLE ON THE STREETS OF THE TOWN IN EXCESS OF THE POSTED SPEED LIMITS, AND ESTABLISHING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF.

Be it ordained by the Town Board of Trustees of the Town of Cloverdale, Indiana:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and enforcement of this ordinance:

A. "Motor vehicle": shall mean and be construed to include automobiles, motorcycles, locomotives, and all other vehicles self-propelled, except traction engines and road rollers, the cars of electric and steam railways, and other vehicles running only on rails or tracks.

SECTION 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate or cause to be driven or operated any motor vehicle on a street within the corporate limits of the Town of Cloverdale not under the jurisdiction of the State of Indiana, in excess of that posted on the traffic signs.

The Superintendent of Streets shall have the authority to post appropriate signs showing such speed limits and shall have the responsibility of removing old signs in conflict with this ordinance, 1974-5.

Provided that, the fact that the speed of a motor vehicle does not exceed the applicable maximum speed limit posted does not relieve the driver from the duty to decrease speed when special hazards exist with respect to pedestrians or other traffic or by reason of weather or street conditions; and speed shall be decreased as may be necessary to avoid colliding with any person or vehicle which is on or entering the street in compliance with law.

SECTION 3. EXCLUSION.
